

DIPLOMATS PROTEST IN VAIN TO MADERO AND DIAZ AGAINST NEED- LESS LOSS OF LIFE IN MEXICO CITY

EVERY QUARTER OF THE CITY IS SWEEPED BY RAIN OF SHELLS
DURING EVERY HOUR OF THE DAY

An Armistice Is Arranged By Diplomatic Representatives of Four Powers So That An Envoy Could Enter The Rebel Lines
And Confer With Diaz--Envoy Is Fired Upon Despite White Flag--Two American Women Are Killed By Federal Bullets.

MEXICO CITY, FEB. 12.—One American woman was killed today during the renewal of the second days battle in this city. Another American woman was mortally wounded and a third American, young man, was shot through the arm.

The battle started early in the morning and continued until 9 o'clock tonight. During that period shot and shell swept the city from both forces doing great damage to many buildings, and killing and wounding scores of persons.

The number of casualties has not been estimated, but it is known to be large.

Some of the rebel shells and not a few rifle bullets reached the national palace, but none did serious damage. It is not believed that Diaz seriously contemplates at present an attack on Madero's headquarters.

Will Attack Rebels.

Madero has promised to make a combined assault on the rebel positions tomorrow, but the operations of today indicate that Diaz has much in reserve. On the third day of the battle it was government forces who burned their powder. Diaz brought forth heavier guns than he had used, subjected the city to a more terrible bombardment than that of yesterday and enlarged his zone of action. Tonight both Madero and Diaz are optimistic. Two threatening features of the day were the appearance in the outskirts of the city of Zapatistas, who harassed the government troops, and the release from the Belem jail of several thousand prisoners. Some of the latter have joined the rebel ranks, but others were set free and may return to looting.

Diplomats Protest.

The American ambassador and the ministers of Great Britain, Germany and Spain made protests to both Madero and Diaz against the barbarous and inhuman warfare but their protests have been in vain. The British legation was under the rebel fire for a time, but the American embassy is considered to be in a comparatively safe district. On this account the women and children are being brought to that section and an American guard protects them. During a lull in the fighting, automobiles flying the white flag were sent to various quarters of the city by the Americans, Germans and British for the purpose of collecting the women and children of all nationalities and they will be housed in the buildings around the embassy.

City Quiet at 11 O'clock.

Anticipating an early resumption of hostilities tomorrow, more than 600 Americans fled tonight from their temporary abodes in the outskirts of the city, where the danger from the fire will be lessened.

Ambassador Wilson on information from the national palace, knew that the government planned a crushing blow and, determined to save the Americans if possible, wrecked numerous houses, to which under flags of truce agents of the embassy hurried in automobiles as many women and children as would agree to be transported.

The casualties are estimated at not less than 300 dead and 1500 wounded in the two days fighting. Mrs. Griffiths, whose legs were shot off, died tonight.

About 10 o'clock there was sharp action for a few minutes by a federal battery against the rebel position but at 11 o'clock the city was quiet.

MEXICO CITY, FEB. 12.—From early morning the crack of rifles or the crash of a cannon could be heard in some quarter of the city almost every minute of the day, sometimes close, sometimes far distant.

The diplomatic representatives of four powers protested, and an armistice was arranged so that an envoy from these diplomats could enter the rebel lines and confer with Diaz. But doubtless owing to the inability of the federal commander to control all points on his lines this envoy was fired upon by troops, although riding under a white flag.

Henry Lane Wilson, the American ambassador, the British Minister, F. W. Stronge, the German Minister, Herr Von Hintz and the Spanish Minister, Senor Cologan, Coloman called at the National Palace during a lull in the fire shortly before noon. After a brief conference with President Madero they had little difficulty in gaining his promise to suspend operations if General Diaz would do like-wise until the diplomats or their representatives could confer with the rebel commander.

Diplomatic Envoy Fired On.

D. E. Hamer was chosen to carry the message of protest to Diaz. He entered an automobile which with a white flag, moved through the federal lines. It was supposed that the troops had been advised of this mission, but the automobile was instantly made the target for numerous rifle and artillery shells.

it. It continued on its way, however, the diplomatic envoy apparently being unhurt.

The bombardment which was terrible yesterday reached a climax this morning when Diaz shelled the very center of the business districts in an effort to silence the cannon of the government and drive from the roofs of the Taylor Buildings the federal sharpshooters and the men serving the machine guns.

This smothering action directed from the arsenal continued for more than two hours. Shrapnel fell like hail and occasionally bursting shells tore holes in the sides of the buildings.

Meanwhile, the fire from the opposite direction rendered the far out residence district uninhabitable, as well as the big apartment building known as Gore court on Third Romana street. The federal guns replied occasionally but without serious damage to the rebels. It was this action which decided the diplomats, after communicating with their governments to protest against the continuation of such operations which they characterized as being unsanctioned by the laws of warfare of civilized nations.

Sends Protest to Diaz.

President Madero and his minister agreed that the bombardment of cities was barbarous, and especially as a struggle as was going on between forces of artillery, and the minister of war, acting in accord with the president and the cabinet sent to General Diaz a protest declaring that if he persisted, the government would regard all those occupying the arsenal as beyond the pale of the law.

Immediately after the dispatch of this message the finance minister Ernesto Madrazo, speaking for the president said that it had been determined to crush the rebels by a concentrated attack, the government using the heaviest guns available and bringing to a swift end the next big action, when the fighting was resumed. He declared that the government would bring into play heavier guns than they had yet employed and would force the attack from all sides.

Text of War Ministers Note.

The text of the note sent by the war minister, General Pena to the rebel commander is as follows:

"The artillery fire coming from you is causing danger to the life and interests of non-combatants and to the lives of the foreign residents and diplomatic ministers.

"As this is a flagrant violation of the laws of war of civilized nations I notified you that if you do not limit your fire to the zone of the combatants we will consider outside the law all those who occupy the arsenal when that position is taken by our forces.

"The government will be inflexible in complying its duty toward compelling you to keep the peace, but upon you will rest the responsibility in history and before the Mexican nation if, by your anti-patriotic attitude, you cause greater injury to the country."

Two American Women Killed.

No doubt the intentions of the government was to rescue the action on an augmented scale, and reminded from moment by moment of the desultory firing from outside that the homes in almost every quarter of the city would be rendered unsafe for the foreigners, particularly Americans, British and Germans, a sent throughout this afternoon automobiles under white flags to collect the women and children and transfer them to the section around the American embassy which is considered relatively free from danger. An American guard is on duty at the embassy, and foreign residents without visible arms patrol this quarter, because of the total absence of police.

At the height of battle Mrs. H. W. Holmes, the wife of an employee of Dun's agency, was killed and Mrs. Percy Griffiths, the wife of an employee of the street railway company was mortally wounded, both of her legs being shot off. Allie Bland, a printer, was shot through the arm. Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Griffiths were preparing dinner in their kitchen in an apartment building close to the arsenal when a shell from the federal lines burst through the walls instantly killing Mrs. Holmes and leaving Mrs. Griffiths in a dying condition. Bland was walking along Independencia avenue when he was struck by a rifle ball apparently from the federal line. The Americans wounded yesterday are improving.

Protest Accomplishes Nothing.

The protest of the diplomats took the form of a demand that the firing zone should be limited, but it accomplished nothing. Both Madero and Diaz evaded responsibility, each placing the blame on the other, and characterizing the attitude of the opposing side as barbarous and in violation of the rules of civilized warfare.

Diaz insisted that he had to direct his fire at the points from which he was attacked and called attention to the fact that the government cannon were located in the heart of the business section and thickly settled residential districts.

To President Madero the diplomats said that they had come to protest in behalf of their governments against a continuance of "the barbarous and inhuman warfare." They recited the great damage done to many residences and the fact that the American consulate had been demolished by government shells, and pointed out that the American embassy was filled with Americans driven from their homes by a bombardment of which no notice had been given. All the governments, they added, were deeply concerned for their subjects and charges.

Madero Visibly Embarrassed.

Ambassador Wilson later speaking for the commission said that Madero was visibly embarrassed and confused and put the responsibility on Diaz.

Ambassador Wilson declared Madero's words had not made a favorable impression on the diplomatic representatives.

To General Diaz, the ministers, after urging the establishment of a neutral zone said that much damage had been done by indiscriminate and reckless firing which was seemingly directed over parts mainly occupied by foreigners, regardless of the foreign representatives.

Ambassador Wilson declared that President Taft was deeply apprehensive as to the results of this state of affairs, and that war vessels had been ordered to both gulf and Pacific ports, and transports with marines, who, if necessary, would be brought to the capital for the purpose only of maintaining order and affording protection to the lives and property of the foreign residents.

Federal Repulse Twice.

Laredo, Tex., Feb. 12.—A delayed official telegram received just prior to the prostration of the Mexican telegraph lines about noon today said:

"The noble efforts of the loyal forces were repulse twice by the forces of the enemy. The government has forces at the National theater, the National Palace of Communications and Belem prison which are energetically bombarding La Ciudadela which is occupied by Diaz."

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 12.—The Southern Pacific railroad has been advised to hold sufficient equipment on hand to take troops from here to Galveston on short notice.

Coaches, stock cars and freight cars are being gathered in the local yards in great numbers.

Red Cross Telegraphs Funds.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The American National Red Cross today telegraphed to the Mexican ambassador at Mexico City $1,000. Of this amount $500 will be allotted to the Mexican Red Cross society for the relief of suffering and distress incident to the revolution in the capital. The balance is to be expended by the ambassador for the relief of American citizens.

Marines Ready to Leave.

Boston, Feb. 12.—The 200 marines at the Charleston navy yard prepared today to leave on fifteen minutes notice. Lieut. Col. Theodore P. Kane, the commanding officer of the marines said:

"Officers and men at the barracks are standing by, ready to move immediately upon receipt of orders."

The gunboat Tacoma it is understood has received orders to proceed for Central American waters tomorrow.

Refugees Brought to Texas.

Laredo, Texas, Feb. 12.—Today's train from Mexico City brought many men, women and children refugees who left Monday soon after the Diaz revolt began.

Few passengers could give a coherent story of the fighting. They deemed it wise to leave the capital, notwithstanding no anti-foreign demonstrations had occurred.

Rurales were reported fighting rebels near the edge of Tlalpam and prevented the insurgents from kidnapping Alberto Woern or destroying his paper mill. The newspapers asserted that the Tlalpam cadets who liberated General Reyes, killed their own leader, Col. Merellos, when he attempted to persuade them to surrender to the government.

In the taking of La Ciudadela the Mexican press reported that General Diaz secured 50,000 rifles.

Will Ship Ammunition.

Vallejo, Calif., Feb. 12.—Fourteen field guns and a large quantity of ammunition and other supplies are being held at Mare Island navy yard ready for immediate shipment to vessels bound for the Mexican coast. The shipment was prepared upon a telegram request from Rear Admiral Southerland, commander-in-chief of the Pacific. It is probable the guns will be sent south on the Collier Justin, which is due here Sunday.

A rumor was current here today that the cruisers California and Maryland had received rush orders to proceed to Mexico. This report, according to officials is without foundation, as both vessels are undergoing repairs.

Will Protect Cubans.

Havana, Feb. 12.—The Cuban government is concerned over the safety of Cubans residing in Mexico, and tonight dispatched the cruiser Cuba, the flagship of the Cuban navy, to Mexican waters.

The Cuba will proceed to Vera Cruz. She has on board a landing party of infantry and artillery for the protection of Cuban citizens there.

Stories of occasional robbery and looting by small mobs, were reported during the day but for the most part the criminals as well as the law abiding element were terrified by the incidents of the last two days to do anything but seek places of SPRINGFIELD, FEB. 12.—Balloting on the senatorships began in joint session of the general assembly today. The result dispelled all doubt as to whether the legislature would deadlock on the senatorships as the house did on the speakership.

Ratify Amendment.

In fitting commemoration of the birthday anniversary of Abraham Lincoln, the senate this morning by a vote of 48 to 0 ratified the proposed amendment to the United States constitution providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

The resolution was called up by Senator Pierce, chairman of the committee on constitutional amendments. Senator Magill spoke briefly of resolution. Every senator present voted for it.

McKinley in Action.

Speaker McKinley gave the first indication today of how he will perform under fire. Incidentally he handled the Progressives without gloves and despite their demands for a roll call announced that the resolution for the direct election of senators, which had just been passed by the senate and reported to the house for concurrence in a message from the upper body, would lie upon the speaker's table for the present.

Stating that he was not opposed to the resolution but that the house was about ready to go into joint session with the senate to ballot for United States senator, Representative Smejkal moved that the message from the senate lie on the speaker's table until a more opportune time for consideration.

"I do not think this resolution ought to be considered in a haphazard manner," responded Smejkal.

"The motion of the gentlemen from Champagne is to table the motion of the gentleman from Cook," announced Speaker McKinley.

"Without hesitating he continued: 'All those in favor of the motion will respond by saying, 'aye,' those opposed, 'no.' The ayes have it. All those in favor of the motion of the gentleman from Cook will respond by the usual sign. Those opposed—the motion is carried and the message from the senate will lie upon the speaker's table for the present."

The speaker had worked so rapidly that the Progressives were swept off their feet. Messrs. McCormick, Zolla, Fitch and Munro, from their newly selected seats at the "north pole" of the house, were upon their feet crying "roll call."

As Speaker McKinley rapped for order Medill McCormick and Representative Curran, another Progressive, came down the aisle and proceeded to the speaker's rostrum and informed him that five members had demanded a roll call.

Speaker McKinley calmly dismissed their complaint, saying:

WILSON OFFICIALLY DECLARED ELECTED

HOUSE AND SENATE CANVASSES
ELECTORAL VOTES

Senator Bacon Presides Over Joint Session and Canvass Is Made With Elaborate Ceremony—Recapitulation Gives Democrats 435 Votes.

WASHINGTON, FEB. 12.—With elaborate ceremony, the senate and house of representatives today in joint session canvassed the electoral votes of the various states of the union and officially declared Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey and Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana elected president and vice-president of the United States for the term beginning March 4th.

Senator Bacon presided over the joint session, proclaimed the election, when, to the crowded floor and galleries of the house chamber, he delivered the following proclamation prescribed in the official rules:

"This announcement of the state of the vote by the president of the senate pro tempore, shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons elected president and vice-president of the United States each for the term beginning March 4th, 1913."

Democrats of the house and senate greeted the proclamation with a round of applause, a few cheers and several to applaud the election of the usual Democratic indications of approval. The galleries joined in the demonstration and the dignified atmosphere, led by Senator Bacon and two tiny pages bearing the wooden caskets containing the electoral vote, certificates, returned to its own classic confines, far from the noisy hall of the house. The usually noisy exuberance of the house proceedings was quieted by the event of solemn senatorial dignity when the proceedings began, and even the galleries seemed to appreciate the seriousness of the occasion when Senator Bacon announced that no applause would be permitted. The nature of the house eventually asserted itself, however, and there were cheers and handclapping and yells as the canvass proceeded. The announcement of the California vote drew applause from the Progressives. A real Democratic outburst followed when Senator Martine announced New Jersey's 14 votes for Wilson and Marshall and applause came from the Republican side when Utah and Vermont each gave Taft and Butler four votes.

The recapitulation gave Wilson and Marshall 435 votes; Roosevelt and Johnson 88 votes; and Taft and Butler 8 votes.

The certificates of all the states were received and counted and there was no response to the formal demand of Senator Bacon as to whether there was objection to the recording of the vote.

WILSON WILL NOT PUBLISH
NAMES OF CABINET UNTIL MARCH 4

Announces That He Intends to Keep Mind Open Until Last Moment in a Number of Cases.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 12.—President Wilson announced definitely tonight that he would not make public the names of his cabinet until he sent them to the senate for confirmation on March 4th.

"I will follow the good old fashioned method," he said "and not make any announcement until the names of the cabinet members are sent to senate." Mr. Wilson's remarks were occasioned by the publication of reports from Washington that he would announce his cabinet tomorrow. He said there was absolutely no truth or authority for the reports.

Mr. Wilson it is indicated will ask the men to whom port folios are offered to regard the information as confidential.

He believes also it is said, that he ought not to make any important announcements until he is actually president of the United States. A premature announcement from outside sources, however it was admitted, might upset the governor's plans.

The president-elect was asked if his policy of reserving announcement to the personnel of the cabinet and expected further suggestions.

"I certainly intend to keep my mind open until the last moment in a number of cases," he said. "I think the field of possible choices as full as it possible can be, but I must say that the number of men who have entered themselves has not been large."

The governor received in silence the information that he had been officially elected president of the United States through the balloting in the house of representatives today. He said he had been working in his study all day examining papers and documents which had been accumulating since his nomination. He heard press reports of the Mexican situation but offered no comment.

MAKE EFFORTS TO RECONCILE FACTIONS

ECONOMY DIFFERENCES REACH THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS

Fitzgerald Recommends Vigorous
Cuts in Bills Yet to Be Passed—
Underwood Discusses Situation
With Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, FEB. 12.—Economy differences among the house Democrats to day reached the leaders of the Democratic side and efforts were made to reconcile the factions which threaten to precipitate a struggle over the naval appropriation bill with its two battleship provision when it appears on the floor.

Speaker Champ Clark, majority leader Underwood and Representative Fitzgerald, chairman of the appropriations committee conferred over the entire appropriations for the session and Mr. Fitzgerald told the leaders in no uncertain terms that the appropriations were mounting to a much larger figure than had been anticipated. He recommended vigorous cuts in the bills yet to be passed.

After the conference Mr. Underwood talked over the situation with members of the ways and means committee. Last night's meeting of the economy advocates had taken as a resolution asking the ways and means committee to discipline the naval affairs committee for increasing the naval bill. The bill as framed by the committee would carry about $146,000,000 and the economy advocates insist that it should be cut about $20,000,000. Mr. Underwood called upon Representative Padgett of Tennessee, chairman of the naval affairs committee and urged him to endeavor to cut down the bill. Mr. Padgett called the Democrats of his committee together but they were unable to agree on any reduction and the matter was put over until tomorrow.

The economy advocates who are about sixty strong in the house declare that they will filibuster and prevent the passage of the bill at this session unless the amount carried is materially reduced.

Ask Strike Investigation.

A congressional investigation of conditions prevailing in the strike zone of the West Virginia coal fields is asked for in a telegram received by the senate today. The telegram was signed by H. Spiegel, of Avery, Iowa, secretary of Local No. 242, United Mine Workers of America. It was referred to the senate committee of Education and Labor.

Favorable Report on the House Bill.

Favorable report on the house bill to require manufacturers to stamp upon packages the exact weight and measures of the contents was ordered to day from the senate committee on manufacturers. The measure is intended as an amendment to the pure food law.

Amendments adopted by the committee would exempt packages which sell for six cents or less, and would authorize the Secretary of agriculture to draft rules and regulations for reasonable variations.

DID NOT LIVE THE VATICAN.

Rome, Feb. 12.—The Vatican denies absolutely the report published in America that the pope yesterday left the vatican to visit the home of his dead sister. The authorities at the Vatican add that such action on the part of the pope would be an utter contradiction to the pontiff's character, as he considers it his sacred duty to remain within the walls.

President and Cabinet Make Decision After Day of Conferences

PRELIMINARY ARRANGED

Should Conditions in Mexico
Demand Landing of Troops
Congress Will Act

SOLDIERS READY FOR ACTION

WASHINGTON, FEB. 12.—President Taft and the cabinet are in accord that congress shall bear the responsibility of any intervention in Mexico.

A day of conferences between the president and his adviser ended with the understanding that should conditions in Mexico City become so much worse as to demand the landing of American troops, Mr. Taft will lay before both houses of congress full facts of the situation in a special message.

Today every preliminary was arranged for the action which might follow such a course. Thirty-five thousand men of the army, navy and marine corps were put in readiness for movement. The first brigade of the first army division, first created in the organization, 3,000 men in all, and the nucleus of an expeditionary force of 15,000 was put in marching orders, ready to entrain for Newport News, Va., where army transports wait under steam.

Marines Ready For Movement.

Between 2,500 and 3,000 marines of the Atlantic battleship fleet and at the Guantanamo Naval station, were prepared for immediate movement to Vera Cruz, where they might be kept aboard ship, ready for landing to blaze an avenue of escape to Mexico City for foreigners as they did at Peking.

Six dreadnaughts with approximately 6,000 Jackies and officers now are rushing under full steam for Mexican ports—four on the Atlantic and two on the Pacific. The first should arrive at their destination Friday and the last Saturday.

Ten other crack fighting ships of the Atlantic battleship fleet swinging at anchor about seventy hours off Guantanamo are ready for sea. They have safety. Business houses, banks and restaurants are closed and not even a railway ticket is to be bought in the uptown offices. The offices of the cable company have been kept open throughout the fighting, however, and this morning when there was sharp shooting on all sides and once a shell tore a gaping hole in the iron shutters over the windows, the force of Mexican and foreign operators continued without interrupting their work of receiving and sending at the tables not five feet away.

Dozens of buildings show great jagged holes, broken cornices and torn corners, while hundreds near more insignificant marks of the bombardment. In some streets and overhead wires dangle from posts, the fire from one side or the other having sheered off many of the supports. In Alameda, the great wooded park in the center of the city the trees were mowed down by the vicious fire; small limbs covered the ground in places, evidences of the heaviness of the small arm fire.

General Diaz's Reply.

General Diaz replied that he regretted what had happened to the city and its inhabitants; that his attitude from the beginning was one of defense; that instead of attacking the arsenal from a distance as the government was doing he had gone directly to the place and had taken it in 25 minutes. In so doing he explained he had at heart the desire to cause the city no harm which was shown from the fact that while it was in his power he had refrained from going to the national palace which he felt certain he will be able to take if it fails to yield without his resorting to that expedient.

General Diaz declared that it was not a matter of personal ambition on his part to overthrow the government but a desire to voice the sentiments of the whole nation. If he succeeded he would allow the people to select their own representative.

Replying to the firing he replied that the government had placed its cannon disregarding the fact that many persons were endangered in positions in the thickly populated sections. Most of the damage done by the guns was from shots that fell short.

Mrs. George Barnhart, who resides five miles south of Jacksonville, was given a happy surprise Wednesday evening by a large number of her neighbors and friends. Oysters with all the trimmings were taken by the guests and a splendid supper was served and enjoyed. The evening was spent in a delightful social way and it is needless to say that Mrs. Barnhart, although taken unaware by her neighbors, made everyone feel at home and the occasion will be recalled by all with pleasure.

DINED WITH LINCOLN.

February 12th is an important day each year for Mrs. Mary T. Alexander for it marks the date of her birth as well as that of the immortal Lincoln. For a number of months Mrs. Alexander has been at Passavant hospital and there a number of old time friends called yesterday to make special mention of the day. Mrs. Alexander who is now eighty-six years old still retains her mental faculties and she recalled yesterday how many years ago, she and her husband, the late John T. Alexander, dined with Lincoln here in Jacksonville. They were all guests at the home of Dr. Long which at that time stood on the East Court street lot later occupied by Cherry's livery barn. Mrs. Alexander has a distinct recollection of the occasion and of the impression which Lincoln made on her that day by his appearance and conversation. Although Mrs. Alexander has now so far overstepped the number of years allotted to most people, it will be a pleasure to her many friends to know that her health is better now than was true a few months since and there is reason to believe that she may be spared for still other years.

PRESIDENT GUEST OF UNION LEAGUE CLUB

SPEAKS BEFORE CLUB AT BANQUET IN HONOR OF LINCOLN

Taft Begins Address With Tribute to Abraham Lincoln and Closes With an Attack Upon the Progressives.

PHILADELPHIA, FEB. 12.—President Taft, five members of the cabinet, two governors, and a score of other distinguished men were guests tonight at the fiftieth anniversary dinner of the Union League club at a banquet given in honor of Abraham Lincoln. The president and party will leave for Washington early tomorrow.

The president, first speaker on the program, praised Lincoln, declared bluntly that if he were alive today he would be in line with the Republican party and said that he hoped to see that element of the party which deserted the standard last fall, swing back into the line again to insure the continuation for fifty years "more of the policies of that party. He made no reference in his speech to conditions in Mexico.

The president began his speech with a tribute to Lincoln. He finished with an attack upon the Progressives but, he said, that looking with keen eye upon the efforts of the incoming administration they would find their way back into the Republican fold and line-up once more again with the grand old party.

"What of the future of the Republican party?" asked the president. "We have had a division and we have had a beating.

"We're a great, strong people, and we can stand a great deal. It may be that this defeat will benefit us this time. It may be that through it we will come to recognize again the principle of recognized government.

One of the characteristics of the Republican party is that it has shown in the last fifty years an ability to get together and organize and carry into effect the great principles for which it stands. Therefore all we ought to do is to make the declaration that our basic principles cannot be surrendered, liberty, regarded by law, those distinctions imposed by the people on themselves, cannot be overcome by the nostrums of demagogues. These principles we cannot depart from.

"Would Lincoln be with us if he were alive?" "Well, of course he would. "Because Lincoln understood popular government as few men have understood it. Because he understood the constitution and loved it as few have loved it. He understood practical government better than any man who ever lived. I differ from those who claim him as a 'trade mark' for the claims they make differ radically from what we know his ideas were.

"Shall we re-enact the role of the dog in the manger in Aesop's Fables? We have a government of strength of permanence of power and force. Shall we throw that away and take a step backward? "I hope not."

FIRE DESTROYS HOME.

Residence of Martin Daniels Burns to the Ground.
The residence of Martin Daniels at 1006 N. Fayette street was destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The flames were discovered by some neighbors who saw smoke coming out from the top of the house. The fire gained good headway before the fire department was notified, so by the time of their arrival, which was prompt, there was not much left of the building. Most all of the furniture had been gotten out of the house, but considerable clothing was burned up. The home had recently been repaired with a new porch added, painted, furnace, electric lights and the family feels their loss keenly. An insurance policy was carried with the Hartford company, which will partially cover the loss.
The family moved what belongings they saved to 903 North Diamond street. Mr. and Mrs. Veerlin Daniels, parents of Martin Daniels were in the house and Mr. Daniels who has been confined to the house for several weeks had to be aided in making his escape. Ross Wagner assisted him.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness, sleeplessness and general ill health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be assimilated and carried to the blood. On the other hand, the blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion. In turn, the nerves are not fed on good, red blood and we see those symptoms of nervous breakdown. It is not hard work that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip—bronchitis—consumption. Fortify the body now with

NOTABLE GATHERING AT LINCOLN BANQUET

ELABORATE AFFAIR HELD AT STATE ARSENAL IN SPRINGFIELD

Former Senator Joseph W. Bailey and Count Bernstorff Are Principal Speakers—Both Pay Tribute to Lincoln.

SPRINGFIELD, FEB. 12.—One of the most elaborate banquets ever held in Illinois, was attended by a notable company tonight in honor of Lincoln's birthday anniversary. The banquet was held in the state arsenal which was elaborately decorated with flags and bunting, even the flag of the new Chinese republic found a place there.

At the speakers table Count Bernstorff sat at the right and former Senator Joseph W. Bailey sat at the left of Toastmaster Humphrey. There also were present, Governor Edward F. Dunne and other state officers, besides many men prominent in national and state affairs.

Senator Bailey was the first speaker, his address being largely a plea for the old political views of Lincoln, whom he said would oppose ideas being brought forward today.

Count Von Bernstorff praised Lincoln's memory and referred especially to the long standing friendship between Germany and the United States.

Pays Tribute to Lincoln. Senator Bailey's address was eloquently eulogistic of Lincoln and replete with historical references. He referred to events political of the present day as follows:

"One of the most valuable admonitions which ever fell from Lincoln's lips was that in which he warned his fellow countrymen against innovations and urged them in impressive words and with prophetic vision, to stand in the old ways and never to change the institutions of our fathers unless the wisdom of that change was so apparent that even the authority of their great names could not forbid. That advice is wise, not because Lincoln uttered it, but Lincoln uttered it because it was wise, and it today ought to be written in letters of gold on the walls of every school house and university of this land."

"Judging what Lincoln would say if he were with us now by what he did when he lived, I have no shadow of doubt that to the impatient men who would change the principles of the government in order to accomplish what they call reforms, he would counsel moderation and explain to them that every useful reform can be accomplished under this government as it is and without any departure from its great principles. He would call on them to point out when and where the wise and fearless application of its principles had failed to meet any new condition or to solve any new problem."

"In all these things Lincoln would find an inspiration and he would say to the agitators who now are instilling in the minds of the masses an unspeakable hatred against the classes, that the true duty of an American patriot is to efface that line of distinction teaching all men that they are to be judged by their character and their conduct, not by their wealth or their poverty. I cannot read the future, and I do not know what it holds for us; but whether the sober second thought of the American people shall assert itself and renew our devotion to the fundamental principles upon which this government was founded. Thus making it certain that it will fulfill the mission to which our fathers dedicated it; or whether this restless discontent which now inflames the minds of so many men shall lead us into dangerous experiments which are destined to fail and in their failure to enthrall upon us disasters from the contemplation of which I shrink; we must still remember that this is our country and our duty commands us to do the best we can to promote its welfare and to secure the liberties of its people."

GERMAN AMBASSADOR GUEST OF ASSEMBLY

VON BERNSTORFF AND BAILEY ADDRESS ILLINOIS LEGISLATORS

Hon. Adlai Stevenson, Vice President Under Cleveland Makes Brief Address—Vote of Thanks Given Count.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., FEB. 12.—Count Von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States and Former Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, were guests of the Illinois legislature, sitting in joint assembly to day. Because of delay in completing the vote on senator in joint assembly the guests did not enter the chamber until 3:30 p. m.

They were escorted to the speakers rostrum by the joint committee named to receive them. As the joint committee Count Von Bernstorff, the state officers and members of the Illinois supreme court marched down the center of the aisle of the hall of representatives, the senators and representatives arose and applauded.

Count Von Bernstorff was introduced first. He spoke only ten minutes. Senator Bailey spoke for half an hour.

Stevenson Makes Brief Speech. Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson of Bloomington, vice-president of the United States during Cleveland's administration was with the visitors and responding to calls, made a brief speech.

At the conclusion of the speeches the assembly adopted a vote of thanks to Count Von Bernstorff and ex-Senator Bailey for their visit to the legislature.

Count Von Bernstorff in his address, expressed his great appreciation of the honor of being invited to address the joint assembly. He considered it an expression of esteem and friendship for the German emperor and nation and assured his hearers the "friendly feelings" are most heartily reciprocated by his majesty the emperor and the German people.

The court referred to the long continued unbroken friendship between the United States and Germany and expressed the wish that the friendship may always be continued. He recounted the coming of German immigrants to this country and the bond of citizenship and their natural bond of an ever-increasing friendship between the United States and Germany which they form.

Essential Qualities Are Moral.

"The essential qualities of national greatness are moral and not material," he said. "Likewise in the government of the world mere intellectual gifts are not all powerful. High character and reputation exercises more potent influence over mankind and they make the really great men. The combination of unusual intellectual gifts with the highest moral qualities raised Abraham Lincoln to the pinnacle of estimation where he now stands before the tribunal of history which judges men without prejudice and uninfluenced by the fleeting passions of the day. That is why we have come to day to pay our tribute of devotion to and gather inspiration and guidance from the character of Abraham Lincoln a shrine to which the statesmen of all countries in all succeeding ages may safely come."

Senator Bailey opened a tribute to Stephen A. Douglas and declared that though Southern born, the son of a confederate soldier, had he lived in 1860, and was privileged to vote, he would have cast his ballot for Douglas.

Pays Tribute to Lincoln.

He considered it great misfortune for the South that they permitted themselves to be alienated from Douglas. At the same time he paid tribute to Lincoln. Referring to the senatorial contest he expressed the hope of choosing of successor to Senator Cullom it will be "one worthy to take his place, and as an American I may be permitted to express the hope that if the choice should fall outside the party to which I belong, Illinois will be fortunate indeed if Cullom's successor is of Cullom's worth."

The speaker upheld the necessity of federal defense and declared that "the man who deceives himself into thinking that the great government of this union or the great government of the states in this union or the great government of this union itself can be conducted without the aid of political parties is grossly and widely mistaken."

He said it is impossible to accomplish anything unless we acknowledge the obligations of party allegiance. He said that as much as he abhorred Socialism he gave his "unintended praise to the unity and solidarity of the Socialist party."

He warned all other parties that if they go on quarrelling over small matters of politics, "the next generation will be compelled to reckon with a growth of Socialism and the increase of the Socialist party."

Urges All To Do Their Duty. Mr. Bailey urged all whether private or officers to do their duty in advancing the welfare of the country, and denounced the citizen "who thinks himself too good to help to attend to the affairs of his country and his countrymen."

In the course of his speech, Mr. Bailey complimented the assembly upon its favorable appearance and added: "I said to one of your honorable members a moment ago what I believe I will venture to say to you, although I will render myself immensely unpopular with the delegation from Illinois in the United States house of representatives and that is that in looking over this assembly if I were compelled to trust my destiny or my share of the destiny of this republic to you or to them, I would trust it to you."

Pimples Source of Great Danger

May be Means of Absorbing Disease Germs in Most Unexpected Manner.

Bid Farewell to All Blood and Skin Diseases.

The research laboratory of The Swift Specific Co. has collected a vast amount of information regarding the spread of blood diseases. In thousands of instances the most virulent types have been the result of coming in contact with disease germs in public places, and the apparently insignificant pimple has been the cause. It spreads with astonishing rapidity, often infecting the entire system in a few days.

It is fortunate, however, that there is a remedy to cope quickly and thoroughly with such a condition, and thanks to the energy of its producers the famous S. S. S. may now be had at almost any drug store in the civilized world.

This preparation stands alone among specific remedies as a blood purifier. It is somewhat revolutionary in its composition, since it accomplishes all that was ever claimed for mercury, iodides, arsenic and other destructive mineral drugs, and yet it is absolutely a purely vegetable product. There are more cases of articular rheumatism, locomotor ataxia, paresis, neuritis and similar diseases resulting from the use of minerals than from disease germs direct. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book compiled by the medical department of The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice to all who are struggling with a blood disease.

Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. today of your druggist. It will surprise you with its wonderful action in the blood.

J. N. SWEET DIED AT HOME IN HUTCHINSON

Well Known Kansan was Formerly in Lumber Business Here—Helped Nominate Lincoln for Presidency.

J. N. Sweet, a former resident of Jacksonville, died recently at his home in Hutchinson, Kas. Mr. Sweet years ago was in the lumber business in this city. He was a delegate to the convention which nominated Lincoln for the presidency and was a man who during his long life took an active part in public affairs. The following notice of his life and death is taken from the Hutchinson News:

J. N. Sweet, one of Hutchinson's pioneer business men and one of the early day workers for the advancement of the city, died at his home at 322 avenue A east, at 7:30 last evening. The end had been expected for several days, and came as a result of failing vitality incident to advanced age, as he was 85 and a half years old. Mr. Sweet had been in failing health for two years, but had for only two weeks been confined to his bed.

Joseph N. Sweet was born Sept. 27, 1827, at Jacksonville, Ill., in a section of Illinois which has furnished many settlers for Reno county. He moved to Mt. Sterling, Ill., and lived there for ten years. It was there that he met and on Oct. 20, 1851, married Ann Eliza Hobbs, with whom he lived happily until her death.

Were Married 61 Years.

They celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary last October. Mr. Sweet was the last of a family of four brothers and three sisters. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Ann Eliza Sweet, one daughter, Mrs. Addie M. Landis, of Chico, Calif., and three sons, J. B. Sweet, Chas. L. Sweet and Ed N. Sweet, all of Hutchinson.

The deceased lived an active and useful life, and many chapters from his career would read as interestingly as stories that have become classic in pioneer life. In his early manhood he entered the lumber trade at Jacksonville, Ill., and also farmed during his residence there. He became a railway mail clerk in 1861 and followed that work during the civil war.

When Lincoln was Nominated.

He sat in the Chicago convention in 1860 at which the Republican party was born and when Abraham Lincoln was nominated for the presidency, and went to Washington to see the rail splitter from Illinois inaugurated as president.

Moving from Mt. Sterling to Springfield, Ill., he spent some years at the latter city, thence moving to Oklahoma, Miss., and from that southern country heard the call of Kansas coming to Emporia, in 1877. He was in the mercantile business at that point.

His Farm Now in City.

In November, 1882, Mr. Sweet brought his family to Hutchinson and settled on a farm at the present corner of Fourth avenue and Lorraine street, farming what now comprises the Pay Smith and other additions to the city. In 1890 he entered the real estate business, but for the last fifteen years has been in the mercantile business, only retiring when failing health made it necessary a few months ago.

Mr. Sweet was a life long Methodist, having been converted in early life, and lived an earnest Christian life. He was superintendent of the Mt. Sterling Sunday school, more than a half a century ago, and continued in active church life until he was an elderly man, retiring from the official board of the First M. E. church at Hutchinson about 1895. He died with all of his family about him except the daughter in California, expressing confident trust in the God who had sustained him through a long life of service. He lived his Christianity as he professed it, and has gone to a just reward.

PARCEL POST AND THE MERCHANT.

One of our neighboring editors, in whom we have the utmost confidence, has made a very thorough investigation of the effect of the new parcel post on our home merchants. In answer to our question, "Will the new law hurt the home merchant?" he says:

"While the plan was under consideration in congress it had to meet the solid opposition of retailers' organizations. Their enmity was based on the theory that the parcels post would prove an immense advantage to the big mail order houses. Now that the new delivery system has become a fact, the wise country merchant is preparing to make the best of it. In investigating his opportunity under the new law the country merchant finds that the best gives promise of being not half bad."

"What ever the big mail order house may have hoped for in the way of advantage under the flat rate, the zone system finally adopted gives a distinct advantage to the local retailer. Instead of hurting him it really ought to be of service to him. The bargain rate of the whole system is the rate between the rural delivery center and all points on the outlying routes. The rural routes get the local rate. That is to say, a package will be taken to any point on a rural route for the same rate paid for the delivery of packages within the town limits. This local rate is five cents for the first pound and one cent a pound for the other ten. An eleven pound package at the local rate would be delivered for 15 cents. When you locate the delivery at the package at the far end of a country route it offers the best package delivery bargain offered in this country. While the country town merchant is getting this local bargain rate the big mail order house is paying a high rate that increases in proportion to the distance of the house from its patron. The country merchant not only has an advantage in the rate, but his natural advantages in time is materially augmented. The rural telephone is now the concomitant of the rural route. Where both are available all that is required is a little forethought in early ordering, and goods may be delivered from town on the same day the order is 'phone d in."

"Apparently all that is needed on the part of the country merchant is a little enterprise in utilizing the facilities afforded him. With goods suited to the needs of his community, the newspaper advertisement to attract attention to his wares and prices, the rural mail delivery to take his advertisement to his customers, the telephone to transmit the order and the parcels post to deliver it, who can say the country merchant hasn't a combination that must be hard to beat? With that combination on his side the country merchant that lets the bulk of the orders go to far away catalogue houses, will not be justified in blaming congress for his inability to transact a profitable business."

Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minn., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellows as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effective and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. TELLS WHAT HE WOULD LIKE TO SEE IN JACKSONVILLE

Citizen Writes Letter to Chamber of Commerce Outlining Reforms and Possibilities He Favors.

A citizen of Jacksonville was solicited some time since to become a member of the Chamber of Commerce recently sent back his blank application card and with it the following letter. The writer had reasons which he deemed sufficient for not becoming a member at this time, but he is nevertheless interested in the welfare and progress of Jacksonville and he has given expression to things he would like to see happen in Jacksonville in the letter referred to:

I herewith return the blank application with appreciation of the interest manifest in me and although I believe the association will be a help towards a grater and better Jacksonville yet I do not feel able to invest any money in the enterprise nor do I feel that my personality would be of any benefit to it. I feel that I have very little influence with the "powers that be" nevertheless (1) I am in favor of clean milk and would suggest a city ordinance licensing delivery $5.00 per vehicle and $1.00 per foot person. This would raise money to pay an inspector who should see that the milk is properly handled and dairies properly scared. (2) I am also in favor of one union depot only for all passenger trains. (3) I am in favor of interurban trains with one fare to public square. (4) I also favor cement sidewalks on all main streets in downtown districts. (5) I also favor better street lights, (at less expense). (6) I also favor better and more city water. (7) I also favor more and better sewerage (many cellars were filled this spring). (8) I also favor a better health department with school inspection. (9) I also favor an anti-noise ordinance. (10) I also favor one (only) telephone system with wire underground. (11) The present system costs citizens of Jacksonville annually $25,000, for duplicate phones. (12) I also favor extension of our street car lines so as to be more convenient for more of our citizens. (13) I also favor more careful enforcement of the city ordinances against carrying of fire-arms, speeding autos, children on the streets after the curfew, street walkers of ill fame houses disposing of liquor and many other things that might be mentioned but if you can bring these few to a successful issue I am sure Jacksonville will be better physically, mentally and morally and thus will be a center of attraction for conventions, manufacturers, business, etc., and peace, prosperity and happiness will reign within our town and all its citizens will live on a higher plane. Thanking you again for your interest in my behalf and in behalf of Great and Better Jacksonville.

W. S. Skelton, a merchant at Stanley, Ind., says he would not take $100.00 for the relief a single box of Foley Kidney Pills gave him. G. O. P. RALLY AT KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 12.—The Missouri Association of Young Republicans met in this city today for its annual Lincoln day convention and banquet. Since the adoption of the state primary law, which abolished nominating conventions, the association's annual meetings have been in support of the general ticket, including the Republican editors and other party leaders throughout the state. Today's proceedings were mostly of a routine character. Most interest centered in the convention banquet tonight, at which Governor Eberhart of Minnesota, and former Congressman James E. Watson of Indiana, were the chief speakers.

STATEMENT GIVES OUT VAST AMOUNT OF DETAIL

Col. J. Hamilton Lewis Has Filled Unique Document in Washington.

A Washington dispatch has the following about Col. J. Hamilton Lewis and his campaign expenses. An interesting contribution to the new literature of campaign expense accounts is the statement filed with the secretary of the senate today by Col. James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic candidate for United States senator from Illinois.

Colonel Lewis is not content with stating the dry statistical facts pertaining to contribution and disbursement as have been those candidates striving to comply with the letter of the law. He goes farther and discloses the intimate personal relationships of candidate and financial supporters.

Itemized List of Gifts.

Mr. Lewis accounts for the expenditure so far in his campaign of $4,850. He says the contributions to his campaign amounted to $2,150, itemized thus:

From Joseph Hanreddy, client, because in the contracting business, $200.
 From William L. O'Connell, from what is known as the Dunne campaign fund, $250.

(Mr. O'Connell kindly returned to me the amount that I had contributed to the previous campaigns of Mr. Dunne.)

From friends on the Pacific coast, among whom I had lived, through H. M. Byllesby, $1,000.

(I wish to do Mr. Byllesby the justice to say that his letter stated that he was opposed to my political principles and was for my Republican opponent. But that as there were to be two senators from the state of Illinois he desired me from Chicago, hoping that my vote on political questions would be neutralized by a Republican colleague. But desiring my personal success for what he said would be to the interest of Chicago and the state, he cheerfully joined in the subscription.)

From Edward McCann, former inspector of police, and his friends, remembering me for my professional services in the matter of the litigation of the inspector, which was of considerably notoriety in this community, $500.

From various concerns, in all small amounts of from $5 to $25, $200.

"I beg to add that I have received money through contributions from many sources," the report adds, "but which for reasons satisfactory to myself, I returned, and as they were returned I therefore make no note of them."

Gives Expenses by Items.

Mr. Lewis' expenditures are itemized as follows:
 Expended through newspaper advertisements, in the form of publishing my platform, my views, speeches, as well as paying for the advertisements and space for different proclamations of the legislators whose platform principles were put forth by them and advocated by me, approximately, $1,000.

For clerical aid in getting out clerical matter, such as announcements, letters, general literature, including services for preparation of press matter, $1250.

For traveling expenses and for expenses for general campaigning in behalf of the national ticket through Maine and Connecticut, eastern states and western states, including contributions to the general Democratic campaign fund, $1,500.

Traveling expenses through state of Illinois, in my own campaign and in support of the general ticket, including hotel accommodations and personal accommodations, $500.

Some Debts Not Yet Paid.
 "I am under obligations not yet paid, but which are to be paid from my own pocket, certain sums of money for newspaper advertisements, newspaper space and expenses for automobiles and barges and vehicles, telegrams and postage in my campaign, in visiting different precincts and counties of the state." Mr. Lewis further explains: "All these bills are not yet in hand, but which I will pay upon presentation, not to exceed $500."

Mr. Lewis certifies that he conducted his campaign without any pledges or promises, except those made to young men doing his clerical work. He promised them he would do everything in his power to secure for them clerical positions, should he be elected. He also states that he promised a certain young man whom he does not name, that he would aid him in entering the diplomatic service.

Old Age.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom, counsel. That is old age as it should be, but old age as it often is means poor digestion, torpid bowels, a sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill health, despondency and misery. This in almost every instance is wholly unnecessary. One of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will improve the digestion, tone up the liver and regulate the bowels. That feeling of despondency will give way to one of hope and good cheer. For sale by all dealers.

ATTENDED SALE.

Dr. Carl E. Black, Ellsworth, Black, Harry McLaughlin, J. S. Gardner of Urbana were among those who attended the F. W. McLaughlin sale seven miles from Vinita Wednesday. Mr. McLaughlin is going into the elevator business in Philadelphia, Ill.

FARMERS' CLUB PRACTICAL.

Successful Organization in Existence a Half Century.

A well managed farmers' club is the most helpful, inspiring and useful institution in any community. It does a work with which no other organization can compare, for it leads not only directly to better farming methods, but to a closer social intercourse, which is greatly needed in the country.

There are thousands of farmers' clubs scattered throughout the country and generally they act independently of each other. There is no central organization. Each club is organized in accordance with the ideas or whims of its members, but all have the same general aim in view, improving conditions of their homes and the community, says the Farm and Home. Some very successful clubs have been organized for over 50 years and are limited in membership.

Get All the Farmers to Join. There are several of these clubs in the east with a membership of 20 to 25 members and their wives. A committee on membership recommends a farmer when there is a vacancy, his name is then forwarded to each member, and at the next meeting a secret ballot is taken, which must be unanimous. This is done to insure the election of those who are likely to prove congenial with the other members, for in such an organization the social features play an important part.

Most farmers' clubs have no limit to their membership, or else their limit is so high that all the farmers of a community can join. QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM. George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began to use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Alcott, druggist.

A continuance of the generous patronage of the past is solicited.

EVERY LITTLE OLIVE TABLET HAS A MOVEMENT ALL ITS OWN.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years. Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS.

Miss Laura Winner entertained a party of out of town guests at her home on Reid street Tuesday evening. The entire evening was pleasantly spent in playing games and music. Excellent refreshments were served, including oyster soup, celery, pickles, coffee and fruit.

Don't You Believe It.

Some say that chronic constipation cannot be cured. Don't you believe it. Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you? Give them a trial. They cost only a quarter. For sale by all dealers.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted during the illness, and after the death of our wife and daughter also for the beautiful flower remembrances.

Madam—Whether you need flour today or not, you'll do well to trade with the dealer who sells Zephyr Flour

IN the retail trade, when a dealer gets the agency for Zephyr Flour, it is considered positive evidence that he stands high in his community as a man and high in the trade as a square merchant. It means, too, that the flours in his store are of highest quality.

Zephyr Flour

We have spent endless care, time and money perfecting Zephyr Flour, the famous hard wheat flour of Kansas. We wash it and wash it and grind it and grind it, watching it all the while. Cooks who use it get a reputation for their bread and cakes, their biscuit and pies.

It is so good, so sure, that we sell it with a positive guarantee to satisfy. Any Zephyr Flour dealer will, on request, return the money paid for any sack of Zephyr Flour that fails to please.

Have the chemist's test certificate of the wheat and flour, found in each sack of Zephyr Flour. It assures uniform high quality or another sack from your dealer or from us.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Carl York were Thursday guests at Mr. and Mrs. Ira Blackbird's.

Mrs. Charles Ranson of south of the city was calling on friends in Jacksonville Friday and Saturday.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cox are going to leave their neighborhood as they are such fine neighbors. Mr. Cox has packed all his household goods and expects to leave for Greenwood, Miss., which he thinks is a better farming country.

We wish him all the good luck. Charley Smith expects to move Monday out west of Jacksonville and it seems as though quite a number of our neighbors are moving.

When Burton Holmes recently gave his celebrated travelogue on "Panama" at Orchestra hall, Chicago, he was seriously interrupted by continual coughing of the audience.

No one annoys willingly and it people with coughs, colds, hoarseness and tickling in throat would use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, they could quickly cure their coughs and colds and avoid this annoyance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montgomery are at home after a visit to the dry goods markets in Chicago. Mrs. Montgomery spent several days at the home of her sister in South Bend, Ind., while on her trip.

MOTHER SO POORLY

Could Hardly Care for Children—Finds Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Rovina Center, N.Y.—"For six years I have not had as good health as I have now. I was very young when my first baby was born and my health was very bad after that. I was not regular and I had pains in my back and was so poorly that I could hardly take care of my two children. I doctored with several doctors but got no better. They told me there was no help without an operation. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me wonderfully. I do most of my own work now and take care of my children. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."

Mrs. WILLARD A. GRAHAM, Care of ELSWORTH TUTTLE, Rovina Center, N.Y.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for women's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

A STRONG REFERENCE.
A young man recently applied for a position with a large printing house, and not having a letter of reference, offered his bank book. It showed a regularity of entries of deposit. It was a very strong recommendation, indicating character and persistence, which finally secured for him a good position.

ROOSEVELT'S SLOGAN

SAYS PROGRESSIVE PARTY WILL FIGHT TO A FINISH.

Former President Made Speech at Lincoln Dinner in New York—No Yielding or Amalgamation in His Program—Attacks Idaho Supreme Court For Decision Against Progressives.

New York, Feb. 12.—Former President Roosevelt made his first public appearance in the councils of the Progressive party for many weeks tonight, to say that so far as he was concerned there would be no compromise, no amalgamation, no yielding in the fight for the party.

"The Progressive party has come to stay," he declared.
The ex-president again attacked the supreme court of Idaho for its decision denying the Progressive party a place on the ticket at the fall election.

Many of the conspicuous figures in the Progressive campaign last fall gathered for the Lincoln day dinner at the National Progressive club.
Two thousand seats at the table were all taken, many of them by women and hundreds of spectators filled the balcony overlooking the ball room in which the dinner was held. Albert J. Beveridge, Progressive candidate for governor of Indiana at last election; Oscar S.
Strauss, who ran for governor in New York; William Hotchkiss, former Progressive state chairman, and ex-Congressman W. Bourke Cockran also made speeches.

Colonel Roosevelt tonight returned to the subject of the decision of the supreme court of Idaho in the election cases, and again voiced the opinion that this decision constituted "an even graver offense against justice and decency, and an even greater blot on the American judiciary than the Dred Scott decision itself."

The court he characterized as "the most potent instrument in this denial of justice."
"Abraham Lincoln was no less guilty than the three men whom the supreme court of the state of Idaho imprisoned for contempt because they criticized, in less severe language than Lincoln, a decision as indefensible from every standpoint of law and justice and popular rights as the Dred Scott decision itself."

Colonel Roosevelt spoke to Progressives at their Lincoln birthday banquet. The first political utterance he has made in months, his address was permeated with passages from Lincoln's writings and speeches. In Lincoln's words he replied to the critics of the Progressive party, likened Republican leaders to "the old, exclusive silk-stocking whiggery," which "opposed Lincoln before the civil war,"
and declared that the time had come for the people to act as the court of last resort. He said in part:

replied to the critics of the Progressive party, likened Republican
leaders to "the old, exclusive silk-
stocking whiggery," which "opposed Lincoln before the civil war,"
and declared that the time had come
for the people to act as the court of
last resort. He said in part:

"At this moment there has occurred in Idaho a decision by the highest state court which, within its own limits, is an even graver offense against justice and decency, and an even greater blot on the American judiciary than the Dred Scott decision itself. The reactionary supreme court of Idaho has played into the hands of the Republican machine, which it was itself a part, precisely as Justice Tarey and the majority of the supreme court of the nation in 1857, played into the hands of Presidents Pierce and Buchanan and the reactionary organization of which he and they were part."

"In Idaho the result was as grave
a miscarriage of justice at the election as had already occurred at the nominating convention, and the court became the most potent instrument in this denial of justice."
This decision I hold to have been an outrage upon the people of Idaho and not merely upon them but upon the people of all the United States for any interference with the right of an American in any state to cast his vote and to have it counted for the president of his choice, is an offense against the Americans of all the states.

A Reactionary Court.
"I think the result of the vote showed that if we had been given our clear and undoubted rights Idaho's electoral vote would have been in the Progressive column. The action in the reactionary court, taking in combination with the action of the Republican machine, resulted in the deprivation of the right of the people of Idaho to express their choice for president."

"Abraham Lincoln said that he believed the Dred Scott decision represented a conspiracy against liberty between the then supreme court and the leading officers of the reactionary party to which that reactionary party belonged. I believe that with even more justice Abraham Lincoln if alive today could make the same statement about the action of the reactionary court of Idaho in connection with the reactionary leaders of the Republican machine of Idaho."

"But the court did not stop here.
There was in Idaho a newspaper which fearlessly and in entirely proper manner condemned the court for this outrage. The editor and publisher of that paper, and another man connected with them, have been thrown into jail and fined heavily for contempt by the court.
The court in its opinion has cited the numerous dynamite outrages and the like that have occurred, as justifying their action. No more extraordinary plea was ever made. I yield to no man in the horror I feel for the anarchists and for all other criminals who do murder, whether by dynamite or in any other fashion."

Anarchists Less Harmful.
"But the damage they do, though great, is by no means as great to the cause of law and order as is that done by a decision such as the decision in question; and no anarchist ever can or ever will hurt the courts as they are hurt by such action as this of the highest court of the state of Idaho. Remember that if the position of the Idaho court in punishing its critics for contempt is proper, then Abraham Lincoln should have been jailed and fined for his words about the supreme court of the United States in connection with the Dred Scott decision.

NO REASON FOR IT
When Jacksonville Citizens Show a Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Jacksonville citizen says:

Mrs. Dora E. Price, Plum street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "A few months ago I was attacked by pain across the small of my back and some time after an attack of la grippe affected my kidneys. The kidney secretions became unnatural, causing me much annoyance. I had often heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and resolving to try them, I procured a supply at Armstrong's Drug Store. Soon after I began using them the pain disappeared and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I willingly allow my name to be used in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WILL ENFORCE PURE FOOD REGULATIONS

DR. ALSBERG, WHO SUCCEEDED WILEY, MAKES ADDRESS.

Tells Manufacturers of Medicinal Products That Enforcement of Laws in His Department Will be Strict—No Backward Step Will be Taken.

New York, Feb. 12.—Dr. Carl L. Alsberg, Chief of the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture, in his first public utterance since he was appointed to succeed Dr. Harvey Wiley, told the members of the Association of Manufacturers of Medicine Products here to-night that he intended to enforce the pure food laws as strictly as possible. He asked proprietary medicine manufacturers to aid him to reduce the sale of narcotics to the lowest possible point.

"The eyes of the people," said Dr. Alsberg, "have centered upon the department's struggle for pure foods. The work of the department has, I think you will admit, been successful in improving the quality of our foods and preventing grave forms of fraud and adulteration. We realize fully that much remains to be done, but public confidence has been won; and precedents have been created. No backward step will be taken. There will be not let up in the enforcement of the pure food and drug act."

Combine With Manufacturers
Just prior to this statement Dr. Alsberg asked that the patent medicine manufacturers combine with his bureau to bring about government control of the sale, and regulation in the handling, of all patent medicines and narcotics. He also asked that these same manufacturers begin the agitation for uniform legislation in all states with the same object in view.

"While the efforts of the Department of Agriculture," continued Dr. Alsberg, "in so far as the control of the food products over which it has jurisdiction is concerned, have been attended with considerable success, this has been true to a less degree with drugs and medicines. The fault has been in part with unforeseen loop-holes in the law. I do not wish to imply that nothing has been accomplished. On the contrary, as you are well aware, through the great powers over imports vested in the Secretary of the Treasury, the Department of Agriculture has succeeded in keeping out of the country all crude drugs of an inferior quality."

"It is far different with the domestic nostrums. Because the domestic manufacturers know how to advertise, no existing federal law can adequately protect the people. The Sherley Act will we hope, enable us to compel the removal of all false and fraudulent matter from the package."

Hope in Sight.
"Gloomy as the outlook seems, there is yet a ray of hope. It is the attitude of a small but powerful portion of the press itself, which has voluntarily scoured its advertising columns till they contain only clean and honest matter."

"Even if we succeed in protecting the people from quack medicines, a great task remains. This is to protect them from habit forming drugs, such as opium and cocaine. We all are agreed that something must be done to control their sale and distribution. The only differences of opinion concern the best means of accomplishing this end."

U. S. Must Help.
"Without the help of the Federal Government, no reforms can be introduced because of States by themselves can not control the supply. If these drugs are produced in this country, it would be exceedingly difficult to keep track of and to trace the supply. It would require an expensive police force to control the supply of these drugs and it is doubtful whether this control could ever be made efficient. Fortunately the situation is not so difficult. Virtually all our supply of these drugs is imported."

"It is, therefore, feasible of the state and Federal Governments co-operate to keep an accurate record of the fate of all of each consignment imported through the wholesaler and jobber down to the pharmacist, physician, dentist and veterinarian. If the Federal Government does its share, State officials by an examination of Federal records will be able to learn what quantities of narcotics are coming into the State and to whom they are consigned. Each State will then be in a position to control these sources of our people. This evil must be stamped out. I propose to use every lawful means at the command of the Bureau of Chemistry to accomplish this end."

Gentlemen, I wish to have a clear understanding with you. I hope that now we can pledge each other to work together for the common good."

PARCEL POST RULE ABOUT INSURING MAIL.

Additional Instructions Have Been Issued From Washington.

There has been considerable discussion over the insuring of parcel post packages by the government and in relation to this matter the following instructions covering this matter, have been received by Postmaster J. J. Reeve.

Fourth class (parcel post) mail cannot be registered, but may be insured by the payment of 10 per cent in addition to the postage, both to be prepaid by parcel post stamps affixed.

Until further advice the indemnity for insured parcels shall cover loss or rifling only, not mere damage or injury, but when the damage to a parcel is so complete as to render the article worthless and beyond repair. It will be indemnified as a complete loss up to $50, provided it was accepted as insured at the office of mailing, and the manner of preparation of the article for mailing was such as to enable it to withstand all ordinary handling to which it would be customarily subjected, and the loss or complete damage occurred while the article was in the custody of the postal service. Damaged articles should not be withheld from delivery, but if the addressee considers that he has grounds for a claim, he should be advised to preserve the wrapper. The postmaster who makes the delivery should also, as far as practicable, note the extent of damage, or the condition of the article when delivered, a notation being made on the delivery tag which is filed in the postoffice.

When an insured parcel is accepted at the office of mailing, and the coupon receipt has been given to the sender, the postmaster must retain custody of the article until it is dispatched and must not hand it back to the sender to be placed by the latter in the ordinary mail drop.

Until further advice rural carriers may accept parcel post packages to be insured at the office to which they are attached. Delivery of insured mail on rural routes should be made as in the case of registered mail. The coupon of the tag is to be returned to the postoffice when signed by the addressee or agent, for filing. See instructions on back of insurance tags.

GET THE HAIR BACK.

As Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, 116, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '09, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in a few days had hair all over his head. In July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroys the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

NATIONAL LEAGUE ADOPTS SCHEDULE.

Ends One of Shortest and Most Peaceful Sessions in Its History. New York, Feb. 12.—With the adoption of the playing schedule for 1913 to day, the club owners and representatives of the National League ended one of the shortest and most peaceful sessions in the history of this baseball organization. According to the statement made by Secretary Heydler at the close of the meeting harmony prevailed and there was no ripple of discord heard during the discussion of business yesterday and to day.

The schedule calls for 154 games, the seasons opening with one exception on April 19, and ending October 5th. Owing to the good will of the Boston and New York club presidents, the game originally scheduled between Philadelphia and Brooklyn for April 17, has been brought forward to April 9th, on which day the new Ebbets Stadium in Brooklyn will be opened.

The opening day games, aside from the advanced Brooklyn opening at Boston at New York; St. Louis at Chicago and Pittsburgh at Cincinnati. Brooklyn opens the season in Philadelphia on that day.

PLEAS FOR BETTER TRAINING OF THE GROWING BOYS

Rev. J. W. Miller Gives Strong Prelude on "Young Absalom in Jacksonville"—Services of Especial Interest Tonight.

The service at the Grace revival meeting was largely attended last night and a deep interest pervaded the meeting. The solo by Miss Jessie Rottger was a beautiful number and was highly appreciated.

The prelude was on the subject announced, "Young Absalom in Jacksonville." Rev. Mr. Miller went straight to the heart of the situation. He declared "that the most serious problem facing the city tonight was the problem of her young men; that few parents really investigated the place where hundreds of their sons were nightly visitors. What kind of concern is it that does not prompt a father to inquire into the character of the place and associates where his son spends his evenings. No young man can habitually visit the pool rooms of Jacksonville and not be damaged, physically, morally and socially unless he has already sunk to the low level that prevails there."

"Where are the men to come from that are to take the place of the men of Jacksonville who are known throughout the state, of the jurists, the lawyers, the skilled surgeons and doctors? They are not recruited from the cigar smoke, the swearing and obscenity of the pool room. Rev. Mr. Miller spoke in the highest terms of the Y. M. C. A. of Jacksonville as a clean and wholesome place for the boys and young men. He said it was worthy of the confidence and abundant support of the citizens. What of the tastes of the young men who ignored the Y. M. C. A. for the filthy pool room? Many of them were from the church homes and otherwise good homes of the city." The prelude was a powerful plea for better care of growing boys, for the building of a conscience that would hold the lad against the temptation of such places as some of the pool rooms of this city.

Following the prelude was the sermon on the text, "What Answer Will You Give Him?" Man must give an answer for the life that he leads. He may ignore the requirements of decent society but he could not escape God's requirements. What will a man answer who neglects the claims of Christ's kingdom? All his life he has been receiving priceless privileges and blessings that the kingdom of Christ has made possible for him. What will he answer for the use of all these with no return of gratitude or service?

Some of the answers were mentioned that men give as an excuse for their indifference to the claims of the gospel. One man says: "Every man to his own notion. You to yours and I to mine." Does a man talk that way when he goes out to deal with the laws of nature? He would not last very long. Does a man talk that way who violates or neglects the civil laws? The circuit judge would send him down to the jail to reflect awhile. Is there any more reason to think that such an answer will be accepted for ignoring the laws of the spiritual kingdom?

Another man will say: "God is too good to destroy His creatures." In the first place, God does not destroy His creatures. Every man will go to his own place, the place of his own choosing. Salvation is freely offered and if a man does not accept, then he does not have it. How great is the goodness of God. It is manifested very clearly. It is most strikingly manifested in the provision God has made for the rescue of all who will be rescued. Salvation has been wondrously provided for all who will accept it. God is good. Yet 600 perished in fifteen minutes in the Iroquois theater fire. In two hours the Titanic sank beneath the waves of the Atlantic. God is good but why those disasters? Man violates His laws and suffers. Every man has violated God's moral laws and He has made provision for pardon but how can a man be pardoned for his sins who does not accept the provisions made for him? These and all such answers will not be accepted at the judgment seat of Christ. What answer will you give him?

Tonight Rev. Mr. Miller will give a ten minute prelude on "The Girl and Her Mother." All girls from the colleges and schools are invited with their mothers if they can come. The subject of the sermon will be "There's Some One Knocking at Your Door." Prof. W. A. Gore will sing a solo at the service tonight.

UNUSUAL TRIBUTE IS PAID LINCOLN IN JUDGE PAM'S COURT

Proceedings Suspended Twenty Minutes While Judge and Attorneys Make Eulogistic Speeches.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—An unusual tribute was paid to the memory of Abraham Lincoln in the presence of a jury before Judge Hugo Pam in the superior court today during the trial of a suit against the sanitary district.

Court proceedings were suspended for twenty minutes during the hearing of the case while the jurors listened to eulogistic speeches by the judge and the attorneys for both sides. The suit on trial was that of a Beardstown, Ill., farmer who is seeking to recover damages for the overflow of his lands in Cass county, said to be due to the dumping of water into the Illinois river from the drainage canal. The attorney for the plaintiff called attention to the coincidence that the property involved in the suit was in the same territory in which Lincoln lived and practiced law for many years. It was at Beardstown that Lincoln conducted one of his greatest murder cases, which he won, said the attorney. "A tablet erected by the mother of the man who won his freedom through Lincoln's efforts remains as a memorial of the event."

The attorney for the sanitary district told the jury of records of Lincoln's cases, his pleadings, written in long hand and receipts for his fees still preserved in the courts. It was at this point that Judge Pam suspended court to head the memorial meeting.

CLASS BANQUET.

The boys class, the young men's class and the chorus of Brooklyn church enjoyed a banquet recently in the balcony room of the church. The banquet was given by the pastor to line up the young men and boy scouts for the coming revival which will begin next Sunday under the direction of the pastor, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Biddle of Murrayville. The banquet which lasted from 6:00 until 7:30 p. m. was served camp fashion. The menu consisted of game, baked beans, hot buns and butter, celery, cheese, nut salad, apples and coffee. An extra table was placed for some down town business men who also attended. Taken altogether, the enthusiasm at the banquet, the excellent work being done by the chorus under Miss Lindsay, and the way in which the Brotherhood class has already fallen into line, the prospects for an effective revival on the south side are very bright.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY WAS OBSERVED IN SCHOOLS

Addresses Made By G. W. Flagg and Rev. H. S. Alkire—Pupils Were Given Half Holiday.

Lincoln's birthday was observed in the various public schools of Jacksonville. There was some special songs and recitations in nearly all the grades and at the Jefferson and Franklin buildings the older pupils gathered to hear addresses. Rev. G. W. Flagg spoke at the Jefferson school by invitation of W. S. Badger and at the Franklin building, Rev. H. S. Alkire made the address. Pupils in all the schools were given a half holiday.

Mr. Alkire based his remarks on the heroic manhood and boyhood of the great Emancipator. Drawing an illustration from a picture of Lincoln ciphers on a fire shovel before the open fireplace which hangs in the Lincoln monument at Springfield. Mr. Alkire impressed upon the students necessity of thorough preparation whether reward were in sight or not. In comparing Lincoln with Washington, he said Lincoln did prosperity as great a service in preserving the nation as Washington did in freeing it.

At the Franklin school Rev. Mr. Flagg said:

"While the battle of the wilderness was being fought a messenger at the risk of his life came to President Lincoln with the intelligence from General Grant that whatever happened there would be no turning back. This was the spirit which wins victories, the spirit all should cultivate. Lincoln admired this quality in Grant as he did in no other commander. A special warning of Lincoln's life was right makes might and not might makes right as we so many times believe."
